

WORKING FOREMAN – DRYWALL

Auld & White Constructors, LLC, an established and reputable construction firm in Jacksonville, Florida, is seeking a Working Drywall Foreman with a minimum of five years' drywall experience in commercial construction. Overall responsibilities include managing, directing and overseeing small work crews. The incumbent must be proactive, detail-oriented and have a positive attitude.

Life at Auld & White Constructors includes great earning potential, minimal travel, a knowledgeable and supportive team of experts, competitive benefits, training, opportunities for career advancement, low turnover, a close-knit team and FUN!!

Come join our team!

Reports to: Division Leader - Drywall

Job Description:

- ◆ Coordinate jobsite logistics
- ◆ Maintain relationships with main project team and other trades
- ◆ Maintain high level of productivity, quality and safety
- ◆ Procurement and tracking of materials for installation
- ◆ Coordination of work scopes
- ◆ Assist in resource-loaded schedule planning
- ◆ Other duties as assigned

Requirements:

- ◆ Five years' drywall experience in commercial construction
- ◆ Ability to read and understand drawings and specifications
- ◆ Ability to speak and understand basic Spanish is a plus

Great potential for advancement to field supervisory position, dependent upon completion of training and demonstration of individual's qualifications and ability.

Interested parties should submit their resume and references to Drew Christy at dchristy@auld-white.com.

About Auld & White Constructors, LLC

Auld & White Constructors, LLC (AWC) is a locally owned construction firm established in 1987. AWC has more than 125 local employees on staff, including office and field personnel, who are based out of the primary office and corporate headquarters in Jacksonville, Florida.

AWC provides a variety of design-build, construction management, and general contracting services for the new construction and renovation of institutional, healthcare, industrial and commercial facilities throughout Northeast Florida. These services focus on all areas of management control relating to quality, scheduling, safety, communication, cost containment and on-time delivery.

AWC is one of North Florida's leading construction firms, completing a multitude of projects totaling more than $1B in Northeast Florida. Through focusing on clients' needs and utilizing our resources to solve their problems, AWC has developed long-term relationships with many clients for more than 30 years.

Auld & White Constructors is an equal opportunity employer.